McLEMORE (a)—Did Joel Mc-Lemore of 1750 have a brother John? Where did he live, die?
Where was he buried? Whom did he marry? Names of his children are desired. Did any have Revolutionary service and where?

WYCHE (b)— Revolutionary records show Elizabeth Wyche as wife of Joel McLemore. Her ancestry is desired, and all data connected with them, especially Revolutionary service. Elizabeth was sister of Colonel Thomas Taylor's wife, Ann. Will correspond.

Can you identify these names?

4 Sherry Wyche 1741-1785 Brunswick Co Va + Fairfield Co. N.C. m Ann Lancy dau of William Lancy.

She took two months to reply to the first one and you could see for yourself how cordial it was. She just let it get by her until the days grew into weeks and the weeks into months then she scuttled back into her shell scared to death to write. I know her so well! She's fought this nervousness and feeling of inferiority all her life and she's had a hard life - sole support of a grand mother and blind sister since the age of 16. Heru had a date. She's confided in Heru that she has taken correspondence courses to try to learn self confidence and will power. That seems unbelievable to you and me, born rich in social graces and back ground. We now know what other girls suffer. Think I'll write her again. If she lends the ink and paper it will be a big saving. When I write I'll ask for a double quantity of each, enough for two books. Might as well.

I know there is no hitch in having the G. A. Co. send the stuff on she would not have said she would.

If you ever need data on shipree-Wyche - Dymum I have it all from court records in Brunswick, Greenville etc, files of it.

By the way: I found a lead to my Chapman - Wyche problem. You know I want to prove that Mary Chapman

Deed Book 19 page 78 date 25 Feb but being "Wyche - Chapman" leads me to hope it sheds some light on the subject. This is my own interest being my own ancestry.
